DISCOVER YOUR SPIRITUAL GIFTS

Introduction

Peter Wagner defines a spiritual gift as “a special attribute given by the Holy Spirit to every member of the Body of Christ according to God’s grace for use within the context of the Body.”

God has gifted every single believer with at least one spiritual gift to build up the body of Christ and to extend God’s Kingdom (Ephesians 4:11, 16). It is freely given by the Holy Spirit as an act of divine grace (the word normally translated in Greek is ‘charismata’ which means ‘gift of grace’). Our Heavenly Father loves to bestow gifts to whoever desires them (James 1:17).

Another Greek word for spiritual gift, ‘diakonia’, means to minister or serve. This word was used in Mark 10:45 to describe the purpose Jesus came to earth. As different parts of the body of Christ, God has given us spiritual gifts to serve the church – to reach all people with the Good News.

What spiritual gifts are not:

- The gift of the Holy Spirit. The gift of the Holy Spirit is received the moment a person trusts Jesus as Savior (Acts 2:38).
- Human talents. Spiritual gifts are supernatural abilities that God gives by the Spirit (1 Corinthians 12:1).
- Fruit of the spirit. Fruit of the Spirit has to do with character (Galatians 5:22-23) while the gifts of the Spirit have to do with service.
- Offices. A person can have a gift without functioning in the corresponding office. However, those who occupy an office should possess the corresponding spiritual gift.

Categories Of Spiritual Gifts

1 Peter 4:10

For even the Son of Man came not to be served but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many.

Mark 10:45

As you discover your God-given gifts, submit to the Holy Spirit's guidance as He shows you how He wants you to fulfill His vision and mission. Most importantly, while we eagerly desire greater gifts, we should walk in the love of God. Without love, our gifts and actions are meaningless (1 Corinthians 13).
