Join the Vision

9:00 am to 11:30 am

“Join the vision” is a time aimed at helping you understand more about what it means to be planted in a local church, and how you can practically grow and serve within Hope Church. Topics covered will also include our fundamental beliefs and the core values we hold onto as a church.

Recommended for those new to Hope Church and those interested in church membership.

Sarah Andrews

Sarah is currently serving in the Unigen ministry, leading the unit of UQ2. She is currently involved in the intercessory ministry and the missions department, as well as with Next Steps and Next Steps Academy. Sarah has a heart for revival and to see believers passionately on fire for God; to see believers walking in healing, wholeness and the fulness of all that God has for each one.

Bible Reading Forum

9:00 am to 12:30 pm

It's no secret that consistent Bible intake is an essential – even indispensable! – part of the Christian life. However, do you struggle to read the Bible on a consistent basis? Do you desire to grow in your discipline and delight in reading God's word? If so, you're not alone! Come join us as we get equipped with some basic tips and tools that can help us read God's word more consistently, purposefully, and profitably!

Recommended for all those wanting to grow in the foundations of Bible reading.

Leroy Yeow

Currently, Leroy is leading a working adult life group in church and works as a senior structural and facade engineer professionally. He is passionate about the things of God especially theology and biblical studies. He currently enjoys reading “Praying with Paul”, by D. A. Carson, which draws him closer to God. In his spare time, he enjoys watching movies, home renovations and spending time with his family. Leroy is married to Su Ann and together, they have a lovely daughter.

Prayer Empowered Life

1:00 pm to 4:30 pm

Prayer is a direct line to God. Discover biblical principles that will increase your appreciation of the power of prayer and practical insights that will increase your passion for prayer. Topics covered will include the theology of prayer, the attitudes and effects of prayer, listening to God, fasting and an introduction to healing.

Recommended for those wanting to set foundations in living a prayerful life and in hearing from God.

Adam Lew

Adam is currently leading the St Lucia intercessory ministry, and is serving in the Unigen ministry as a sub district leader. He has a great passion for prayer, intercession and the prophetic. He is a man that carries the fire of God. His heart is to see people encounter and know God and walk in the fullness of all that God has for them.

Principles of Servanthood

1:00 pm to 4:30 pm

It's time to serve! We would love to prepare you to serve God in His house through exploring the significance of Christ's servant leadership and what that means for us in serving God in our daily life.

Recommended for those who have a heart to join a church ministry and a great refresher for those who want to grow in the area of servanthood.

Adam Wong

Since the start of his journey in serving God and His people in Hope Church, Adam had the opportunity to serve in various ministry teams - from the welcome team, programs team, events team, campus ministry team to worship team. He is also currently serving as a leader in the UniGen ministry, and working as a manager at ANZ. Adam is passionate about seeing people living out their purpose for God when serving Him wholeheartedly.

Knowing God's Will

9:00 am to 4:30 pm

God wants the best for each and every one of us, but how do we know we are living in the best way possible? Throughout this unit, we will look at various ways of knowing God's will and examining key principles that will help us to lead a life that honours God in every area of living.

Recommended for all who desire to learn the foundations in discerning God's will for our lives.

Sandy Lau

Currently Sandy is leading a life group and is involved in the worship ministry in the St Lucia service. Coming from a non-Christian background, she is someone who has had to walk that journey of discovering who God is and what His will is for her in life. She has a passion for the Word, in knowing who God is and knowing His will for mankind.

The Heart of Mentoring

9:00 am to 4:30 pm

In "The Heart of Mentoring", you will learn the biblical and practical principles involved in nurturing a new believer. On top of this, you will also get to discover how you can help lay firm foundations in the faith of others in order to help them mature in Christ.

Recommended for those wanting to grow more in understanding the principles behind mentoring and in learning how to mentor others.

Sunita Pala

Sunita Pala has been involved with the student ministry at Hope Brisbane for 20 years. She is passionate about making disciples who make more disciples. She enjoys sowing into the next generation, sharing stories from the journey and watching young men and women thrive as leaders for God's Church. She also enjoys a chill time with family & friends, travel and jigsaw puzzles.
